GROWSPAN ENABLES YOU TO GROW HIGH-QUALITY HEMP YEAR-ROUND

GrowSpan Growing Structures maximize your business potential by creating a controlled environment that is ideal for hemp production. GrowSpan Greenhouse Specialists work with customers to design systems that not only boost crop quality, but also reduce labor, leading to a healthier, more profitable operation.

The GrowSpan Hemp Advantage includes:

- Custom greenhouse solutions - Meet any structural need.
- Fully automated light deprivation - Control light cycles, reduce labor.
- Complete environmental control - Grow year-round just about anywhere.
- Turnkey and stock structures - Start building today.
- Energy-efficient designs - Reduce monthly costs.

- Arched and peaked roof designs.
- Expert consultation - Growing and business advice.
- Maximum growing space - Extra-tall roof that vents hot air away from plants.
- Superior structural strength - USA-made, triple-galvanized steel frame.
- Breathable Wall options - Maximize ventilation and air exchange, even while blacked out.
